

國立屏東大學 National Pingtung University

學校簡介 About Us

National Pingtung University (NPTU) is located in Pingtung County, which is seated in the southernmost of Taiwan. With a population of nearly 800,000, Pingtung is a bustling marketing and industrial center. Pingtung County is one of Taiwan's major zones of agricultural production, yielding rice and other crops delighted throughout the island. Pingtung has a justified reputation as a lush and prosperous region.

NPTU, a newly merged university in August 1, 2014, inherits the rich teaching and research potentials in the fields of technological and vocational education, comprehensive higher education, and normal education from National Pingtung University of Education (NPUE) and National Pingtung Institute of Commerce (NPIC). NPTU commits itself to building up a university of excellence in teaching and specialization in research, which responds to the trends in modern higher education. NPTU has 6 Colleges which are Education, Sciences, Liberal Arts and Social Science, Management, Computer Science, Innovative and International. With inherited excellent capacities from NPUE and NPIC era, this new university is regarded as a great place for developing professional talents to meet the demands of the industry and country, based on the outstanding professional performances of its previous alumni of both NPUE and NPIC.

In addition, the educational philosophy of NPTU strongly emphasizes on the balanced development of humanistic qualities, professional knowledge, and practical experiences of our students. To accomplish the goal, diverse leading-edge professional courses and holistic education are designed to cultivate students' professional skills and humanistic qualities. What is more, faculty members are required to seeking resources for research and development from governments and private sectors. Meanwhile, students are encouraged to participate in the academia-industry cooperative projects and earn practical experiences before they graduate. NPTU is convinced that our students will be able to develop great characters of professionalism, humanistic qualities, innovative creativities, responsibilities, and empathy for others, and so on to stand out amongst their peers through the above-mentioned educational measures.
